

Statement of Reasons

Pedestrian Traffic Light Controlled Puffin Crossing at Station Road A694, Gateshead

The pedestrian crossing is being proposed because during site visits carried out by highway officers, it was noted that this location is on a desired route for pedestrians in the village to access local shops and services.

The road is a busy 'A' road and the proposed crossing will improve the road safety for pedestrians crossing at this point.